Dearest Suzanne,

I thought I'd write to tell you that James and I are getting married! The date we have provisionally decided on is August 9th and I do hope you will be able to make it.

The wedding is going to be here in Manchester and it should be quite grand, as my mother is doing the organizing. I only hope the weather won't let us down, as there's going to be an outdoor reception. My parents will be sending you a formal invitation, but I wanted to let you know myself.

All my love,

Julie

Dear Oliver,

Kate and I are getting married soon after we return to the UK – on June 20th. We would like to invite you to the wedding. It will be at my parents' house in Hereford, probably at 2.30pm, and there will be a party afterwards, starting at about 8pm. You are welcome to stay the night as there is plenty of room, though it would help if you could let me know in advance.

Hope to see you then,

Best wishes,

Giorgio

Dear Joe,

Thanks for your letter. I was delighted to hear that you two are getting married, and I'm sure you'll be very happy together. I will do my best to come to the wedding, it'd be such a shame to miss it.

I think your plans for a small wedding sound just the thing, and I feel honoured to be invited. I wonder if you have decided where you are going for your honeymoon yet? I look forward to seeing you both soon. Sarah sends her congratulations.

Best wishes,

Eric

Dear Charlie,

We wanted to let you know that early this morning Julia Claire was born. She weighs 7lbs 2oz, and she and Harriet are both very well. The birth took place at home, as planned.

It would be wonderful to see you, so feel free to come and visit and meet Julia Claire whenever you want. (It might be best to give us a ring first, though). It would be great to catch up on your news too. Give my regards to all your family, I haven't seen them for such a long time.

Looking forward to seeing you,

Nick
